

PIEDMONT POST

A COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER SERVING THE CITIZENS OF PIEDMONT

October 27, 2026

Make your final case. Why should a Piedmont voter mark your name?

If elected, I will put my decades of local volunteer experience and professional skills to work on behalf of all residents of Piedmont. Over the 26 years Julie and I have raised our family here, we have seen our community change in several positive ways, all while maintaining the small town character and can-do community optimism that we value most.

I can't predict with certainty what issues Piedmont will face in the next four years. However, I am certain I will seek the perspective of residents, city staff, and subject matter experts as we navigate challenges together. I will always make good-faith decisions representing the long-term interests of all Piedmonsters.

I have no plans to run for higher office, representing Piedmont well is my only goal.

Thank you to the Piedmont community for supporting my campaign. Special thanks to the Piedmont Post for providing a platform for candidates to communicate with voters.

I hope you'll join my list of local supporters, including current and past Piedmont elected leaders, volunteers, parents, neighbors, and friends. Visit ReichleforPiedmont.com to see the list and add your name.

I would be honored to earn your vote on November 3.
